tles, but I know that they, too, are for Taft. There are, of course, a number of men in various parts of the state indebted to Senators Foraker and Dick for benefits received. Some of these, as is natural, are a little noisy in behalf of the senators, but even among them there is not, in my opin ion, any feeling for any presidential candidate but Taft. What is much more important, however, is the fact that the people of Ohio are overwhelmingly in favor Taft. There is not the slightest doubt of this, and anybody who does not know this is ignorant of the real political conditions

The Fairbanks Matter.

"On the other hand is the question whether Senators Foraker and Dick are supporting the candidacy of Vice President Fairbanks. The friends of both senators are hoping that they will soon find an opportunity of setting this story at rest There is absolutely no human chance o stopping the Taft campaign in this state. It is not possible now for any man or any number of men to do this, and I wish to say in my capacity as chairman of the state central committee that if the senators declare for Senator Forager as a candidate for the presidency or in any other way attempt to misrepresent the feeling in this state as affecting Taft, the sentiment is so strong that it will demand pub-

The obvious way to do this would be to call a state convention, adopt resolution in accordance with the spirit of the dele gates and elect the delegates at large to the next republican national convention Such a convention would stir things up and would be revolutionary. I earnestly hope that it may not be necessary to call such a convention. I much prefer not to see such a step taken. There would be 900 delegates in that convention and you can't tell how far 900 Taft delegates might go.

Party Is Behind Taft.

"I know that there are people throughout the country who regard Senator Foraker as a presidential possibility. They have known for years his brilliant personality and admire many able things he has done. In the matter of presidential possibilities, however, Ohio is not at present with Senator Foraker. It is heart and soul with Taft. I wish the people of the United States to understand this clearly. I want them to know that the republicans of Ohio are behind Taft as a people, and they are with him as a party, and with all the party organization. These are absolute mathematically

"There have been men elected President of the United States by sentiment alone, and some by party power alone, but in this case it is both sentiment and party. The declaration recently made by Mr. Cox in Cincinnati was intended to convey this information to the country. Mr. Cox is sincerely desirous of retiring from active to litical leadership. There are, however, in all parts of the country, men who have sat in national conventions with Cox, and they want to know where he stands in such a matter as this. He made his statement with the intention of notifying the country at large that Ohio did not regard Senator Foraker as a presidential factor, and will not back him in any such ambition if he has it. I am sincerely of the opinion that wisest thing Senator Foraker can do both in his own interest and in that of the republican party, is to declare himself in accord with the wishes of the people of Ohio and support Taft. Such a course is the very best for his own interests that he in Madrid.

MADRID, May 18.-The baptism of the of the Asturias, who was born May 10, occurred in the private chapel of the balace

The ceremonial at the baptism was even more imposing than that connected with the first presentation of the royal child. The chapel of the palace had been richly decorated for the occasion. In the center was the famous baptismal font of Santo Domingo de Guzman, and before the high altar were two benches covered with goldembroidered tapestries for the sponsors The walls were hung with tapestries and decorated with the banners and insignia of the various royal orders of Spain.

A Royal Salute.

The starting of the procession from the royal apartments to the chapel was announced by a royal salute fired by a battery of artillery stationed in the court yard of the palace. The royal babe was carried in its nurse's arms, accompanied by the mistress of the robes and escorted by Cardinal Rinaldini, representing the pope, and was followed by the royal house-hold, the king and the members of the royal family, and the representatives of the foreign powers, including Prince Arthur of Connaught, representing King Edward; Prince Frederick Leopold of Hobenzollers in behalf of Emperor William, Archduke Eugene of Austria, representing Emperor Francis Joseph, and the Duke of Oporto the representative of King Charles of Ambassadors and Ministers.

Then came the ambassadors and ministers to the court of Spain, the cabinet ministers and the great state functionaries and others.

When all had reached their allotted place in the chapel the halberdiers formed up around the walls, the macebearers took up their positions at the doors and four kings-at-arms stood around the front, the whole forming a brilliant color picture. The ceremony of giving the names to the royal child. Alfonso Pio Cristino Eduardo Francisco Guillermo Carlos Enrique Eugino Fernande Antonio, was only of short duration, and after the usual prayers the pro-cession reformed and returned to the royal apartments, the child being taken back to

KUROKI VISITED GEN. GRANT. Continuous Ovation for Japanese Officers in Gotham.

NEW YORK, May 18.-In readiness for his official visit to Gen. Frederick D. Grant, at Governor's Island, Gen. Baron T. Kuroki arose at 7 o'clock this morning and breakfasted early at the Hotel Astor with Capts. Tanaka and Saigo, members of his staff. Shortly before 9 o'clock he was joined by Gen. O. E. Wood and Capt. Jolnson of Gen. Grant's staff, detailed to escort the party to Governor's Island.

The party proceeded to the 45th street entrance to the hotel, where two cabs had been ordered to await them. Only one cab was on the scene, however, and after the party had made an unsuccessful attempt to get comfortably seated in one vehicle it was decided to be democratic and take the subway. Gen. Wood seemed somewhat disconcerted at the non-appearance of the second cab, but the party went to the Times Square station, and thus made the trip to the Battery, where they took a boat to Governor's Island.

The Kuroki party reached Governor's Island at 9:40 o'clock. Gen. Grant received Gen. Kuroki and the post band made a brave attempt to play the national anthem of Japan. The usual military salute of seventeen guns was fired and along the walk there was a line of United States soldiers at present arms. When the dittinguished general had entered the car there was a wild scramble from seats and a straining of necks to see him. It was with some difficulty that Capt. In spite of the crush and jostling, the general displayed no annoyance and shook hands pleasantly with those who succeeded in getting near him. In getting near him.

AFTER DAY OF VIOLENCE.

Street Car Traffic Completely Suspended-More Than 200 Extra Policemen Sworn In.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 18.-After a day of rioting, violence and accident, the second day of the street car strike ended with one dead, six injured and traffic completely suspended. Today excited groups discussed the casualties and the population wondered where it would all end. By order of Mayor Doehnen the cars today were guarded by police, and a great effort was made to restore normal conditions. Whether the sight of the bluecoats, armed and ready for a conflict, would still further excite the mob spirit or whether it would awe the strikers and their sympathizers into silence remained to be seen. More than 200 extra policemen were sworn in last night and went on duty this morning. The gangs of imported strikebreakers, who declare that they were brought here without knowing what the conditions were, are deserting their posts and leaving the city.

The worst accident of yesterday came at 1 o'clock, when a Walnut street car, manned by a crew of strikebreakers, struck the curve at 8th and Walnut streets at full speed and crashed into a two-story office building, killing James Gates and injuring four others, including an eighteen months baby on the sidewalk.

Warrant Sworn Out.

Col. Edwards was then detained by the Capitol police, as stated in The Star yesterday, and the police were notified that he was being held there. Meanwhile Detective Baur had taken Benjamin Actie, the colored janitor of the De Soto apartment house who is said to have witnessed the affray Wednesday night, to the Police Court, and Wednesday night, to the Police Court, and the janitor swore out a warrant charging Col. Edwards with assault with a dangerous weapon. The warrant was placed in the hands of Detectives Baur, Pratt and Forteney, and they went to the Capitol and there served it on Col. Edwards. He accompanied them to police headquarters and was later released, after bond in the sum of $2,000 had been furnished for his future appearance for a hearing. Miss Scott, who was also detained by the Capitol police, was summoned as a witness in the case, and although she has refused to give her present address, it is believed she will appear in court.

Prosecuting Attorney Ralph Given stated Prosecuting Attorney Ralph Given stated today that he was unable to say at present whether or not Garland would appear in court as a witness for the prosecution when the trial is called next Thursday. A summons will be issued for the young attache and efforts will be made to have him in court. It is hinted, however, that he is so badly injured that he will be unable to appear at that time. Dr. Ruffin, 1101 14th street northwest, in whose care Garland is, refuses to let any one see his patient, and will not describe the injuries; but it is understood he was cut severely and that the wounds are close to vital organs. He says he believes the injury was in-flicted either by a knife in the hands of Garland or by a ring on Garland's hand. He denies that he had any knife in the struggle or that he cut Garland.

The man said in broken English 'You had better get off the street.' To this I replied: 'No; if I would better get off the street, you would better get off the street, you would better get off the earth.' Then I waded into him and smashed him hard and plenty. If my wife saw blood on my clothes it was blood from his nose. He cut me on the face, and I have the mark to show for it. I possibly cut him a whole lot, but not with a knife; not with a lenger not but not with a knife; not with a ring; not with anything but my knuckles. Officers were elected as follows: Chairman, Secretary Taft; executive officer, Col. Bromwell; secretary, Mr. Carpenter.

Bromwell was instructed to communicate with the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to ascertain their views as to the estra-bility of erecting the proposed memorial on the plaza at the entrance of the new Union terminal station or upon one of the avenues leading thereto.

One of the plans proposed for a memorial to Columbus involves the erection of a monumental arch over Delaware avenue be-tween the United States Capitol and the tween the United States Capitol and the Union station, and near the latter, so that it might form a gateway to the city. Although the Columbian commissioners are not finally committed to any design, it is understood that most of them favor a monumental group with Columbus as the central figure in preference to an arch. But the questions of site and design are yet to be determined. be determined.

LEAPED TO HIS DEATH YALE VERSUS HARVARD MUSIC TEACHER PLUNGES FROM SEVEN-STORY WINDOW.

Special Dispatch to The Star. NEW YORK, May 18.-Emilio Belair, a Spanish music teacher, leaped seven stories from his bedroom window, at 324 West 57th street, this morning and was crushed beyond recognition at the bottom of a narrow areaway. In its downward flight the body struck a telephone wire and was almost cut

Leon Watterman, who lives on the first floor of the apartment house, heard a scream and, running to the window, saw the form of a man on the stone flagging. Tenants hurried down to investigate and an ambulance was summoned from Roose-velt Hospital. Dr. Sammis said that death y a bone in Belair's body that was not

Due to Ill-Health. Belair was sixty-nine years old and taught vocal and instrumental music. He had a number of pupils and to ill health and not financial worry is attributed his death. For many years he had suffered from nervous disorders, and the fact that he was in his night robe when found this morning indicates that he took his life on morning indicates that he took his life on an impulse when he first arose. The height of the window sill and the narrowness of the window precludes, the police say, the possibility of an accidental fall.

Mrs. Emma Rodderick, from whom Belair rented his room, has taken charge of the body, and his wife in Spain will be notified. Belair often returned to Spain to visit his wife, but she never consented to live in America. He was a man of comfortable means.

FINE CONDITIONS FOR ANNUAL FIELD GAMES TODAY.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 18.-Better track and atmospheric conditions for the dual games between Yale and Harvard universities on Yale Field at 8 o'clock this afternoon could not be wished for than those which prevailed this forenoon, and no change seemed likely. This is the fifteenth meet between the Blue and the Crimson, and this year the former is willing to concede that, on paper, there is every reason to believe that Harvard will win by a fair margin. Yale's team as a whole has been backward in development and several of its best men have been unfortunate. Could Yale win this year it would clinch possession of the cup in which it has four wins against Harvard's three, a total of five being needed

The first cup was offered in 1892, when the first cup was offered in 1822, when the dual games were begun, and Harvard won it in 1900, with five wins. The games today will give the Yale men a good idea of their material for the intercollegiate games, and it is felt that with warmer weather some of the men, especially the sprinters, will develop faster and the sea-son will be rounded out well at Philadel-

There are thirteen events, and the win ner in each will receive five points, the second man two and the third one. The Yale prophets agree that Harvard will have fifty-nine points to Yale's forty-five. A large attendance is assured and a big Harvard contingent is already here. J. E. Sullivan will be the referee.
